

GUÍA COMPLEMENTARIA 1. GUÍA INGLÉS COMUNICATIVO 2. 1º MEDIOS.

Esta guía de estudio tiene como objetivo reforzar tu vocabulario comunicativo relacionado con el amplio tema de los empleos, y profesiones.

Para desarrollarlo debes escribir sobre las líneas vacías en las oraciones propuestas del 1 al 19, la palabra que mejor complete el sentido de las oraciones.

acquaintance	bachelor	boyfriend	colleague	employee
employer	lodger	motorist	neighbour	optimist
partner	pedestrian	pessimist	racist	spectator
spinster	tourist	vegetarian	widow

EVALUATED EXERCISE. (1 point each)

1. She is always expecting the best to happen. She's such an _____
2. A person who watches a sport or an event rather than takes part in it is called a _____
3. Mrs. Brown has been a _____ since her husband died 7 years ago.
4. María and Frank have been going out with each other since they met at the university. He is the first _____ María has ever wanted to marry.
5. Amanda and I own and run the company together. She is my _____
6. _____ is someone who visits another country or district for a holiday.
7. Is James married yet – No, he's still a _____
8. A _____ is someone who goes everywhere on foot.

9. I work for IBM. They are my _____
10. She never eats any sort of meat. She's a _____ 11. Julie and I work together. She is my _____
12. Someone who drives a car is called a _____
13. He is always expecting the worst to happen. he's such as a _____
14. A woman who has never married is called a _____ 15. If you work for your self you are called self – employed. If you work for someone else you are an _____
16. He thinks British people are far superior to other nationalities and looks down on all foreigners. He's such a

17. Mary lives next door to me. She's my _____ 18. Toms rent a room in our house. He's our _____
19. I don't know her really well. She's just a n _____